Cumulative Index, 1993

AUTHOR INDEX

Ackerman, Michael H.
Humor won, humor too: A model to incorporate humor into the healthcare setting 28(4), 9–16
Adams, Donna (See Beck, Lasca)
Alfaro-LeFevre, Rosalinda
Commentary 28(2), 33–35
Barnett, Terry J.
Are there employment risks to ethical decisions 28(1), 17–21
Beck, Lasca
Use of the code of ethics for accountability in discharge planning 28(3), 5–12
Bunkers, Sandra Schmidt
This was not an ordinary day 28(3), 33–36
Carlson-Catalano, Judy M.
What is the language of nursing? 28(4), 22–26
Coffey, Nancy (See Ackerman, Michael)
Denham, Sharon
Stemming the tide of disreputable science 28(2), 11–18
Durand, Mary
Nursing diagnosis: Process and decision 28(2), 25–32
Forrest, Sandra
Toward understanding the self 28(2), 5–10
Galarowicz, LeaRae
Seeking one's sacred space 28(1), 35–36
Graham, Kathy M. (See Ackerman, Michael)
Henry, Mary Beth (See Ackerman, Michael)
Joseph, Dayle Hunt
Risk: A concept worthy of attention 28(1), 12–16
Kane, Debbie
Coping with multiple roles—mother, wife, nurse 28(4), 17–21
Kerr, Mary E.
Commentary 28(3), 27–28
Leftwich, Robert E.
Care and cure as healing processes in nursing 28(3), 13–17
Miller, Barbara K. (See Beck, Lasca)
Moore, Marjorie, A.
Nursing—a scientific discipline? 28(1), 28–31
Norris, Catherine M.
Toward a science of nursing—a method for developing unique content in nursing 28(3), 18–26
Polk-Walker, Glenda C.
Counseling implications in a client's choice of anesthesia in first and repeat abortions 28(1), 22–27
Pravikoff, Diane S.
Commentary 28(4), 33–35
Prince, Rosemary (See Durand, Mary)
Raisig, Miles L.
The index to current nursing periodical literature in the United States 28(4), 27–32
Rajacich, D. (See Snowdon, A.W.)
Ross, Mary Ellen Trail
Settling an ongoing debate with one entry level 28(3), 29–32
Snowdon, A.W.
The challenge of accountability in nursing 28(1), 5–11
Stevens, Rachel
When your clients are in jail 28(4), 5–8
Thomas, Sandra, P.
The view from Scutari: A look at contemporary nursing 28(2), 19–24
Wong, Carol J.
Commentary 28(1), 32–34

SUBJECT INDEX

Abortion
Counseling implications in a client's choice of anesthesia in first and repeat abortions (Polk-Walker) 28(1), 22–27 (Research)
Accountability
The challenge of accountability in nursing (Snowdon) 28(1), 5–11
Use of the code of ethics for accountability in discharge planning 28(3), 5–12
Concept Analysis
Toward understanding the self (Forrest) 28(2), 5–10
Editorials (department)
A nurse in the family (Carpenito) 28(4), 3
Are nurses sexits? (Carpenito) 28(3), 3–4
Give them what they don't know they want (Carpenito) 28(1) 3–4
Loose authorship (Carpenito) 28(2), 3–4
Empowerment
Coping with multiple roles—mother, wife, nurse (Kane) 28(4), 17–21
Seeking one's sacred space (Galarowicz) 28(1), 35–36
This was not an ordinary day (Bunkers) 28(3), 33–36
Entry into Practice
Settling an ongoing debate with one entry level (Ross) 28(3), 29–32
Ethics
Are there employment risks to ethical decisions? (Barnett) 28(1), 17–21
Stemming the tide of disreputable science (Denham) 28(2), 11–18
Healing
Care and cure as healing processes in nursing (Leftwich) 28(3), 13–17
Historical Perspective
Commentary (Kerr) 28(3), 27–28
The index to current nursing periodical literature in the United States (Raisig) 28(4), 27–32
Nursing—a scientific discipline? (Moore) 28(1), 28–31
Nursing diagnosis: Process and decision (Durand) 28(2), 25–32
Toward a science of nursing—a method for developing unique content in nursing (Norris) 28(3), 18–26
The view from Scutari: A look at contemporary nursing (Thomas) 28(2), 19–24
Humor
Humor won, humor too: A model to incorporate humor into the healthcare setting (Ackerman, Henry, Graham, & Coffey) 28(4), 9–16
Jails
When your clients are in jail (Stevens) 28(4), 5–8
Nursing Language
What is the language of nursing? (Carlson-Catalano) 28(4), 22–26
Risk
Are there employment risks to ethical decisions (Barnett) 28(1), 17–21
Risk: A concept worthy of attention (Joseph) 28(1), 12–16